

1991

John W. Montgomery

Elected to the Academic Hall of Fame in 1991

Graduated from Hughesville High School in 1968

Bachelor of Arts degree from Lycoming College in 1972

Masters of Arts degree, International Relations, from University of Southern California in 1978

Graduated from Armed Forces Staff College in 1985

Taught High School Social Studies courses at the Lewisburg Area School District from 1973 to 1977.

Following graduate school employed by the Defense Intelligence Agency, Pentagon, Washington, DC. From 1979 to 1985 served as a Middle East current affairs analyst responsible for monitoring political and military events in Israel and neighboring Arab states. Presented oral and written assessments to the Secretary of Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff, and other Department of Defense principals. Received a DIA Special Achievement Award in 1984 and DIA's Meritorious Civilian Service Award in 1985.

In 1986, promoted to senior Middle East indications and warning analyst in the Pentagons National Military Intelligence Center. Received the Lycoming College Alumni Outstanding Achievement Award in 1987. In October 1987, selected as all-source intelligence collection requirements specialist for the Middle East and Africa.

*Detailed by DIA to the National Security Council in 1989 as the White House Situation Support Staff intelligence analyst for Near East and South Asian affairs and terrorism. During the DESSERT SHIELD / DESSERT STORM operation, headed the Situation Room's crisis cell which provided the President, Vice President, National Security Advisor, and other members of the NSC with intelligence and operational support. Received DIA's Defense Intelligence Directors Award in 1991.*